

Program

9.25 am	Announcements	ORM representative
9.30 am	GRDC welcome	GRDC representative
9.40 am	Economic drivers and mega trends. Record low interest rates, trade wars and banks under scrutiny. What does it all mean?	Saul Eslake, Consulting Economist
10.25 am	Protecting your freedom to operate. Navigating a path with evidence and emotion.	Katherine Delbridge, CropLife Australia
11.00 am	Morning tea
11.30 am	Workforce planning: Taking a strategic approach to farm labour.	Sally Murfet, Inspire AG
12.00 pm	People are the key to your business success: The nuts and bolts of sound farm staff management.	Marie Fowler, Grain grower, Condingup
12.30 pm	Panel discussion and Q&A
12.50 pm	Lunch
1.40 pm	Sign of the times. Making sound farming decisions in a volatile climate.	Peter Kuhlmann, Grain grower, Ceduna
2.20 pm	'Culture eats strategy for breakfast'. What is the culture of your family business?	Stuart Wesley Oasis People & Culture
3.00 pm	Volatile global politics and trade sanctions: what are markets and which grains are most at risk?	Nick Carracher, Lachstock Consulting
3.40 pm	Wrap up and evaluation

Supporting partners

